On Thursday, the last day of the pool plays, Myanmar delighted a large crowd of home supporters with their dramatic 3-1 (25-23 23-25 25-16 25-22) victory over Australia.

After the match, Myanmar's head coach Kyaw Swar Win expressed his satisfaction over his team's performance, citing that it was beyond his expectation. "I think the match should have finished in five sets, but we played well to complete it in four sets. It's unbelievable. We next take on Thailand and Japan in the next round. Thailand are a cut above us, while Japan are very strong. We just try our best."

The day's second match saw formidable Japan prove too strong for Thailand, overwhelming the fighting rivals with exceptional tactics and splendid teamwork to seal the straight-set 25-21 25-17 25-18 win.

Kento Miyaura contributed Japan with 20 points including 19 kills. Mahiro Saeki added with 14 kills. Chaiwat Thungkham led Thailand with 10 points, all of them from ace spikes, while Khomsan Phoosang added with 3 block points.

"This is our second game. Compared with our previous match against Sri Lanka, I think we played this one much better. We next take on Myanmar and Australia. Both are good teams. We now have to prepare ourselves for the next two matches against them. The reason we won today is that at the start of the game, we played well to score many crucial points. If we could not make a good start and didn't score points, it would be very difficult to win the match. Our best player in this match is Kento Miyaura," Japan's head coach Hiroshi Honda commented after the match.
